Fatality Accident

FRISCO, TX – On Sunday, December 16th, at 8:31 PM, Frisco Police Officers responded to a two vehicle collision on Preston Road just south of Meadow Hill Lane. The vehicles involved were a 2005 Ford Explorer Sport Trac and a 2004 Toyota Sienna. The female driver of the Toyota, Saadia Ghaffar (38 years old), succumbed to her injuries after being transported to Centennial Medical Center. Zoya Ghaffar (two year old female) also succumbed to her injuries after being transported to Childrens Hospital of Dallas. The third occupant of the Toyota, a ten year old female, was treated at Childrens Hospital of Dallas and released. The driver of the Explorer, Cindy Castillo (21 years old), was transported to Medical Center of Plano where she was treated and released. All parties involved are residents of Frisco. The preliminary investigation revealed that the Explorer was traveling northbound on Preston Road and crossed the median into southbound traffic and struck the Toyota. The accident is still under investigation.
